LOCATION

Lakeside Court forms part of the Tungsten Park development which is situated off Coventry Road in Hinckley. The A5 is within 1 mile of the same which provides further access to the M69, M6 and M1 motorways, and the development itself provides good quality industrial and office buildings, within a landscaped environment, including frontages to the Ashby-de-la-Zouch canal.

Hinckley is a market town with a population in the order of 55,000 (Local Authority 112,000) lying approximately 13 miles to the south west of Leicester. The town enjoys good motorway communications with junction 1 of the M69 being located on the south eastern fringe of the conurbation and approximately 2 miles from the town centre.

DESCRIPTION

The subject property comprises a mid-terraced industrial/warehouse unit, constructed of a steel portal frame with steel sheet cladding to all elevations, surmounted by a barrel shaped roof. The eaves height is approximately 6m and there is up and over sectional door access.

Internally, the premises have been fitted out to a very high standard to provide a partitioned reception, kitchen and shower/WC facilities, showroom and executive offices to the ground floor, together with a warehouse area. The first floor comprises further open plan and executive offices.

Externally, there are four car parking spaces to the front elevation and a further eight car parking spaces to the rear.
