LOCATION

The subject property is located in a parade of shops fronting onto Rugby Road in Hinckley town centre, close to the recent flagship The Crescent retail development. There is on street car parking to the front of the property and a pay and display car park opposite. Adjacent occupiers include Domino's Pizza and Sainsbury's.

Hinckley is a market town with a population in the order of 55,000 (Local Authority 112,000) lying approximately 13 miles to the south west of Leicester. The town enjoys good motorway communications with Junction 1 of the M69 Motorway being located on the south eastern fringe of the conurbation approximately 2 miles from the town centre. Hinckley railway station provides regular commuter services to Birmingham New Street and Leicester.

DESCRIPTION

BUSINESSES FOR SALE ONLY. An exceptional opportunity to acquire two thriving, independently run food businesses, each operating from its own unit in a high-footfall, prime location with ample parking. One of the units includes a uniquely designed, council-approved quirky serving kiosk – a standout feature that sets it apart locally.

With nearly 40 years of successful trading, these businesses boast: a fully fitted commercial kitchen; strong brand presence across all major delivery platforms and their own custom ordering app; established relationships with major corporate clients (e.g. DPD, Triumph, Logix Park, Croner, and more) and a community hub, a meeting point for football teams, local fishermen and more; a complete turnkey setup including website, designer, trained staff, and trusted suppliers; significant scope for expansion through extended trading hours, additional days, or even franchising. This is a fast-paced, turnkey operation, ideal for a motivated buyer ready to hit the ground running. Full training and handover support provided for at least one month, including introductions to suppliers and clients. Everything is in place to start generating revenue from day one.
